

Support, Advocate, Educate

The Lower Shore LGBTQ Coalition Kick-off Events

SAVE THE DATES

Sunday, October 19 & Monday, October 20, 2014

The Lower Shore Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer/Questioning Coalition is partnering with FreeState Legal Project and Salisbury University's Department of Social Work to offer a series of trainings on October 19th and 20th for youth, families, educators, mental health professionals and community service providers on the rights of LGBTQ youth, resiliency and working with LGBTQ youth. Cost for Monday conference to be announced.

Details on registration will be announced in the coming months.

Sunday, October 19, 2014
Community Foundation
Salisbury, MD
7:00-8:00 p.m.

LGBTQ Youth: Know your Rights
(Free event)

Open to high school youth and parents.

Monday, October 20, 2014
Salisbury University
Salisbury, MD
8:30-4:00 p.m.

Resiliency and Best Practices for Working with LGBTQ Youth
(CEUs available)

Open to educators, mental health and community service providers.

FIND US ON:

@ The-Lower-Shore-LGBTQ-Coalition

@ Lower Shore LGBTQ

The Lower Shore Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer/Questioning Coalition seeks to improve and preserve the well-being of youth and young adults through support, education and advocacy.

The Lower Shore LGBTQ Coalition is a grassroots organization created in 2013.
For additional information email Jennifer Riebe (JRiebe@mdchoices.org) or call at (443)239-5185.